In my philosophy, garden is a verb; it is what you do. a noun that describes not what you did, but what you got when you gardened. So, if gardening is the therapeutic benefit that you receive when you garden, your goal should be to get as much gardening as you can, and with

Gardening Philosophy - Tom Clothier's Garden Walk and Talk

Cooper's A Philosophy of the Garden is a fine and stimulating study that is highly accessible even for those foreign to the field of philosophy. The study nicely grasps the aesthetic distinctiveness of gardens in a way that demonstrates the ultimate inadequacy of such labels as 'nature,' 'art', or even 'nature and art' - the garden stands on its own ground.
