Newly graduated lawyers who are saddled with student loans and are deterred from taking positions in the public sector also have options. Many law schools have come up with Loan Repayment Assistance Programs (LRAPs) to ease the financial burden and attract attorneys to the public sector. Typically, these programs have salary requirements.

Introduction. The UN General Assembly report of December, 2017, underscored that progress in reducing the burden of non-communicable diseases, including neurological disorders, has been insufficient to meet the UN Sustainable Development Goal targets by 2030. 1 Neurological disorders are the leading cause of disability and the second leading cause of death worldwide. 2 Thus, strategies and ...
