The Magician (The Secrets of the Immortal Nicholas Flamel, #2)

Magic is nothing more than an act of the imagination fired by the senses, then given shape by the power of the Aura. The more powerful the Aura, the greater the magic. Magic requires energy and takes it where ever it can find it, even from tiny batteries in electronics. If it can't find it from anywhere else, it takes it from the magician's own life force. Losing control of any magic results ...
